

Paul visits a school

This is Paul.
Paul is a poet.
Poets are fun!

See the children come into assembly.

See them walk in straight lines.

See Paul say

"Good Morning Everybody".

The children reply.

This takes a long time.

See Paul read his serious verse.

See them pay attention.

Paul has a ukulele.

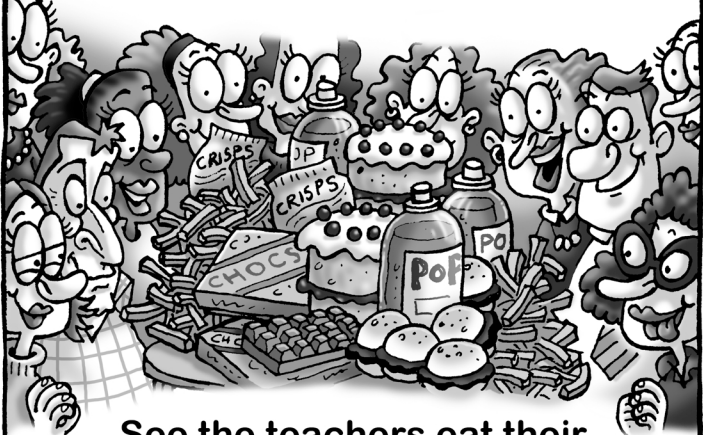

It is very small.

Can you see Paul's little ukulele?

See them laugh.

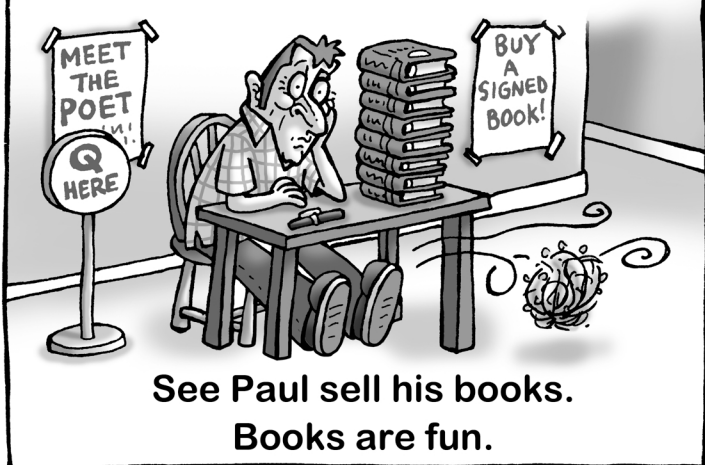

It is break time in the staffroom.

See the teachers eat their healthy snacks and talk about diets.

At then end of the day

Paul sells his books.

See Paul sell his books.
Books are fun.

Paul drives off to spend his book sale money on sweets and crisps.
Bye bye school. Bye bye Paul.
